Community Dancers Welcome New Year

MEMBERS OF DANCING CLASS AND THEIR FRIENDS GIVE NEW YEAR LIVELY GREETING.

The members of the Dancing Class of the Women's Community Club, and some of their friends, gave the New Year a hearty and lively welcome at a masquerade dance, on New Year's Eve, in the Community Room of the Y. M. C. A.

Little Red Riding Hood and "Big" Red Riding Hood were there, and so was the Goddess of Liberty, John Chinaman, Pierrot, Little Sister, one of the Colonial Dames, Mr. Pack of Playing Cards, and the Clown from B. & B.'s famous circus, just to mention a few of the characters portrayed by the costumed dancers.

With the approach of midnight, varicolored toy balloons began making their appearance and bobbing about the room. Long streamers of colored paper were unreeled and linked from couple to couple. Promptly on the first stroke of midnight handfuls of confetti flew through the air. And all this with the whirling colors of the merry-makers' costumes, as the couples danced the Old Year out and the New Year in, to the lively tunes of the jazz orchestra, created a picture of color and animation that gave to the dance the real atmosphere of a festival.

The party was a big success and proved in an unmistakable way the popularity of the Community Club Dancing Class.

Mid-Winter Tennis Dance, Next Friday

MEMBERS OF ASSOCIATION AND THEIR FRIENDS ASKED TO MAKE NO OTHER ENGAGEMENTS FOR THIS DATE.

The mid-winter dance of the Narberth Tennis Association will be held next Friday evening, January 14, at Elm Hall.

Tickets will reach members of the Association next week. Friends of members are urged to make reservations immediately.

These tennis dances are among the most popular social affairs of the season, and are always well attended.

Members are urged to attend and bring their friends. The proceeds go to the fund that the Entertainment Committee is raising for the new courts and club house.

DISTANCE LENDS ENCHANTMENT

Riff: "What is it, do you suppose, that will make a man go so far for a drink of liquor?"

Raff: "Because he can't get it any nearer, of course."

Main Line Organizations

INTERESTING STATISTICS GATHERED BY SUBURBAN ASSOCIATION SHOW THERE IS 1 FOR EVERY 94 PEOPLE.

The Suburban Association of the Main Line, in a study of the organized bodies from Overbrook to Paoli, found that there are 542 organizations, or an average of one organization for every group of 94 people—men, women, boys and girls.

Probably this is the reason for many people saying that the Main Line is over-organized and shudder when someone mentions forming a new organization.

The organizations are of many types with various purposes. There are 26 organizations with a specific civic purpose, 17 social clubs, 51 fraternal societies, 8 patriotic, 23 benevolent, 5 commercial, 24 public schools, 23 private schools, 7 miscellaneous, 52 miscellaneous educational groups, 59 churches, 1 Y. M. C. A. and 234 church societies. The latter figure will be increased as soon as all of the churches are heard from.

The territory includes 21 district communities. Ardmore has a total of 112 organizations; Bryn Mawr, 98; Wayne, 61; Narberth, 52; Berwyn, 41; Rosemont, 28; Paoli, 23; Gladwyn, 20. The balance is distributed among the other communities in smaller numbers.

The information was obtained from the Boyd's Main Line Directory, Main Line Federation of Churches, ministers, priests, ticket agents, workers at Community Centers, newspapers, leaders of clubs, school heads, members of lodges, librarians, storekeepers, township commissioners; each one had something to add to the list because no one ever completed listing all of the organizations along the entire Main Line.

An effort will be made to keep this list up to date, because the fundamental principal of the Suburban Association is to co-operate with all local organized bodies in an effort to develop a broader interest in the civic betterment of the communities lying between Overbrook and Paoli and in the country contiguous to the Main Line of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

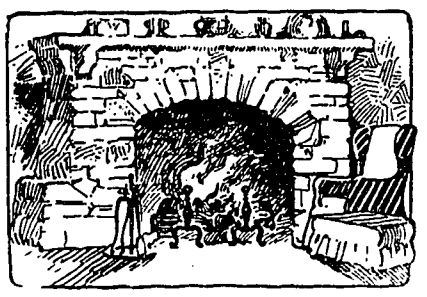

Durbin-Smedley

ATHLETE AND FORMER SERVICE MAN WEDS NARBERTH GIRL.

Residents of many of the communities along the Main Line attended the wedding, on Wednesday night, December 29, at the Baptist Church of the Evangel, Narberth, of William Holmes Durbin and Miss Hilda Smedley. Mr. Durbin, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Durbin, of Narberth, is noted as an athlete. His bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Smedley, also of Narberth.

"Bill" Durbin is regarded as one

Borough Places Contract

At the special Borough Council meeting held on Monday evening, December 27, it was found that bids for collecting garbage in the borough were greatly in excess of previous figures. It was deemed advisable to reject all bids and re-advertise.

At a meeting held on January 3, of four bids opened, the lowest was submitted by William Frazer, of Ardmore, who did the work during 1920. The cost for garbage collection for 1921 will be $1,440.00, or $120.00 per month—somewhat higher than in 1920.

As the garbage is used on a stock farm to feed hogs, it must be clean from glass, chloride of lime and other poisonous materials.

Containers for garbage are also important to the collectors, and the health of the community. Galvanized iron cans with tight covers are best. When the cans leak they should be discarded. Garbage placed in paper bags or cardboard boxes will not be collected.

Collections will be made twice weekly during the winter and three times weekly during the summer months.

All complaints made to any member of Council, the police officer, or the Street Commissioner, will be fully investigated and remedied, if the complaint is justified.

Narberth Man Bags Deer

While on a hunting trip in South Carolina a large deer was brought down by Doremus Brownback, of Narberth. As this is the first successful deer hunt in which Mr. Brownback has taken part, he feels quite elated, especially as the deer he bagged was a fine specimen, having eight points to the antlers.

NOTICE

In regard to Whooping Cough cases

Children who are themselves immune, owing to a previous attack of whooping cough, are permitted to go to school notwithstanding the presence in the family of other cases of whooping cough.

Geo. B. Suplee,
Secretary of Board of Health.

Horse-drawn vehicles and bicycles on the main highways of Pennsylvania at night will be required to display lights in the future, as required by the law effective July 1, 1919. The Pennsylvania Department of State Police will enforce the law rigidly, according to Major Lynn G. Adams, the superintendent.

Many reports are coming to the State Police headquarters of smash-ups at night between automobiles and horse-drawn vehicles that do not carry lights. In some instances lives have been lost because the law was not observed. The State Police are determined to put a stop to this disregard of life and property.

It is prescribed on the statute books that at least one white light shall be visible for 200 feet from front and rear of all vehicles moving or standing on the public highways between sunset and sunrise. Particular attention will be given by the police to traffic regulations on the trunk highways of the State.

DOG LICENSES FOR YEAR 1921 NOW READY.

The County Treasurer at Norristown is now issuing dog licenses and tags for the year 1921.

Persons owning dogs should send to him for dog license application blanks, enclosing a two-cent stamp for postage.

The maximum penalty for failing to register a dog in the county in which such dog is kept, as provided in Dog Law of 1917, is a fine not exceeding $100.00 or imprisonment not exceeding three months.

Dogs not registered by January 15th of each year may be shot by State Game Wardens or any local officer. For failure to perform his duty under provisions of this act, such police officer shall be liable to a penalty of two dollars for each offense.

Any licensed dog found running at large, unaccompanied by its owner, may be picked up and impounded, and if not called for and fine paid, shall be disposed of.

Licenses will not be issued to foreign-born unnaturalized persons, and any such person keeping or harboring a dog is subject to a fine of $25.00 or imprisonment.

The Department of Agriculture has inaugurated a systematic method for enforcing this Act of Assembly, for the protection of livestock, poultry and game.

A few weeks ago, stray dogs killed ten ducks at Belmont Race Track, and it is depredations of this kind which call for the enforcement of the Dog Law.

LAST OF SACRED CONCERT SERIES

It is deeply regretted that the Methodist Chorus Choir, under the direction of Prof. C. C. Nice, has finished its series of musical services which started before Christmas. These musicales were greatly appreciated by large overflow congregations.

This last concert, held last Sunday evening, included many exceptionally difficult numbers, such as "Whoso Dwelleth," by Martin; "Gloria in Excelsis," "As Pants the Hart," etc.

The chorus was supplemented and accompanied by Mr. Bertrand A. Austin, a member of the Philadelphia Orchestra, who rendered several splendid 'cello solos.

It is understood that the Methodist Chorus Choir will give special musical services the last Sunday of each month, and probably a large oratorio in the spring, under Prof. Nice's efficient directing.

Enough credit cannot be given to the Methodist Church in their selection of Prof. C. C. Nice as a director of their choir, as an unusual chorus has sprung up over night, it seems, due greatly to the exceptional opportunity each member has in advanced training from this leader.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow townsman, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.

If It Were a Newspaper He Could Have Digested the News.

Blinks—"The undercrust to that chicken pie you brought me was abominably tough."

Waiter—"There wasn't any undercrust to that pie, sir, it was served on a paper plate."

A One-Man Quartette.

A celebrated singer was in a motor car accident one day. A paper, after recording the accident, added: "We are happy to state that he was able to appear the following evening in four pieces."

CLAIRVOYANCE.

"Do you ever trust to your wife's intuitions?" asked Mr. Jiggs.

"Indeed I do," replied Mr. Meekly. "Whenever Maria says she feels it won't be safe for me to be out after ten, I always manage to get home about nine-thirty."

NUT STUFF.

"Yes," said the mess sergeant. "We'd have had a change from this everlasting slum diet if Washington had let that cargo of walnuts come through. But they stopped it."

"Walnuts? Stopped it? What for?" asked the fall guy.

"Well, you see, buddy, they said there was danger of the shells exploding and striking the colonels."

FOR WEIGHTY REASONS.

Miss Stout had been invited to the theatre by her fiance and was naturally filled with pleasurable anticipation.

"Have you secured the seats?" she twittered.

"Well," he returned, gazing doubtfully at her generous proportions, "I didn't hardly think that was necessary, but mebbe I'd better—mebbe I'd better."

JUDGING FROM APPEARANCES.

Down at Paris Island a big marine rookie was getting initiated into the workings of the corps. For hours he had staggered along the road under a pack that weighed most of a million pounds, had squads easted and wested for a few more hours, had racked his brains over the intricacies of guns and had skinned his right shoulder raw through target practice. And now they had hauled him inside for skull work.

The gyrene was all in and his answers to questions shot at him by the C. O. were about one hundred minus. Exasperated, the officer shouted:

"Say haven't you any brains at all?"

The rookie sadly ruminated his days of freedom of the dim but not distant past.

"You're right, sir," he admitted ruefully. "Don't look that way, does it?"

HANGED BY RED TAPE.

The door of the superintendent's office at the county asylum burst open and the new attendant rushed in breathlessly.

"Sir," he reported, "Jones has just hanged himself."

"And did you cut him down?" demanded the superintendent in excitement.

"Oh, no, sir. He wasn't dead yet."

of the greatest "all around" athletes ever turned out at the Haverford School, where he played football, basketball, baseball and engaged in track sports, and starred in all of them. After graduation from the Haverford School he attended Swarthmore College for one year before entering business, and during that time played football for Swarthmore. Outside of scholastic circles Mr. Durbin has had a brilliant career in local baseball, being regarded as an especially brilliant pitcher for the Narberth team of the Main Line League. He has also played with the Sharpless team at West Chester and with Strawbridge & Clothier. Mr. Durbin served as coach in football and basketball at Narberth High School last year. Mr. Durbin was in military service in France.

The ceremony Wednesday night was performed by the Rev. Avery S. Demmy, pastor of the church. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a dress of rose point lace over white charmeuse, with trimmings of orange blossoms, and a court train. Her veil was a duchess lace coronet, trimmed with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Laura Coyle, of Boston, the maid of honor, wore georgette over orchid satin, a silver lace hat and carried white and orchid sweet peas. The bridesmaids, Miss Dorothy Durbin, Miss Augusta Witherow and Miss Jane Laird, wore charmeuse with ochre lace and brown tulle sashes and brown lace hats. They carried pink roses.

Mr. Durbin was attended by Perry Redifer. The ushers were Horace T. Smedley, R. H. Durbin, Jr., and Edward Ensinger.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Smedley entertained at a reception. Following their wedding journey, Mr. and Mrs. Durbin will live at 101 Woodbine avenue, Narberth.

AMERICAN LEGION

He was engaged to a beautiful young woman—she died.

Entering politics again, he ran for Congress, and was again defeated.

He then tried to get an appointment in the United States Land Office, but failed.

He became a candidate for the United States Senate, and was badly beaten.

He ran for Vice-President and was once more defeated.

When you think of your hard luck, think of Lincoln.—American Legion Weekly.

THE FIRESIDE

Mrs. W. H. Cohic, of 210 Essex avenue, gave a dinner New Year's Eve to announce the engagement of her daughter, Jane Estelle Cohic, to Mr. Ward W. Wellar, of Athens, Pa. The table decorations were rose and white. Those present were: Ruth Jones, Eleanor Wilson, Betty McCaig, Agnes Rose, Madeleine McCoy, Augusta Witherow, Jane Laird, Doris Von Culin, Margaret Eyre, Dorothy Durbin, Mrs. William H. Durbin and Jane Irene Boughner, of Hazleton, Pa.

Five new subscriptions to Our Town came in last week from a subscriber who imposed on himself the task of securing them. If a hundred other men and women of the Borough had the same idea, it would help things considerably, and give additional impetus to the spirit of co-operative community effort which characterizes the little publication—"no paid workers." If your neighbors are not receiving the paper, get them to subscribe, and if they are not good neighbors now they surely will be then.
